MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Analysis of Intelligence Use and Abuse in the 83d Congress

Conferred with Col. Baird, [redacted] STAT and, by telephone, with Mr. Sheldon, and agreed as follows:

1. Three lawyer-trainees, now under the jurisdiction of OTR, would be assigned to a project of surveying the Congressional Record and pertinent Committee Hearings reports for the purpose of collecting and organizing all significant references to Soviet Bloc Intentions and Capabilities. This would be accomplished during the four weeks beginning 8 September.

2. Mr. Sheldon will provide an experienced Intelligence Officer to monitor the project, give general guidance, and consult with the personnel directly engaged on a detailed basis.

3. Col. Baird will arrange for necessary clerical support from Pool personnel.

4. The Office of the General Counsel will undertake to procure the necessary legislative materials.
